SAY POOL SELLING IS NOT GAMBLING

Injunction Against Chief of Police Being Argued in Judge Morse's Court.

Hearing in the injunction suit brought by the local pool room operators against the chief of police opened yesterday morning and, after occupying nearly the whole day, it was continued by Judge C. W. Morse until this morning.

Authorities, ancient and modern, were cited by O. W. Powers and Thomas Marioneaux to show that conducting a pool room was not gambling and to show that the pool room was not a gambling proposition.

Judge Morse said there was a doubt in his mind as to the extent to which a court of equity could go into the gambling proposition.

The pool room proprietors, through their attorneys, admitted they were doing what the city charged they were doing, but they contended that this act was not illegal, according to the statutes. On this point, Judge Morse said he would express no opinion until such time as it might be brought before him properly in criminal proceedings.

It is likely that the case will be submitted some time this afternoon.

LABORERS WANT WAGES

Workmen on Kearns Building Bring Suit Demanding Pay for Work Done in June.

Suit was filed in the district court yesterday by Alex Christensen, representing thirteen laborers on the Kearns building, to collect various amounts due them for labor in June. Liens were filed a few days ago against Thomas Kearns covering the amounts for which suit was brought, yesterday.

The suit is against the Modern Steel Structural company of Wisconsin, R. D. Jones, doing business as the Jones Construction company; John J. Dwyer and Thomas Kearns.

The complaint asks judgment for $978.81, but of this amount, $370 is for attorney fees and costs. Ten of the plaintiffs, with the amounts they demand, are: Matt Smith, $55.40; Z. Malmstrom, $53.44; Frank Denner, $55.40; Cyrus Morgan, $11.11; P. S. Sherren, $40.50; A. P. McLeod, $40.50; Chester Berry, $18; Fred Kullaman, $55.40; C. W. Hill, $57.94; C. C. Walk, $55.50.

It is probable that other suits will be filed in the near future, inasmuch as nearly forty liens have been filed with the county recorder.

AVERS BRIDE KNEW HE SUFFERED WITH EPILEPSY

Caleb A. Picket filed an answer and cross-complaint yesterday, asking for divorce and claiming that his wife did the deserting herself. They were married March 12, 1907. Mr. Picket says she knew at that time that he had been a sufferer from epilepsy since he was fourteen years old. Because of this disease, Mr. Picket says he has been able to get work only a part of the time, but he says he has provided for his wife and their one child to the best of his ability.

DISCUSS SCHOOL SITE.

Board May Bring Condemnation Proceedings to Get Property.

Members of the committee on buildings and grounds of the city school board spent yesterday afternoon discussing the high school site question. Tentative offers for property adjoining the old Twelfth ward site which has been selected, are at figures which some of the board regard as prohibitive and it is likely that if the board holds to its decision to build the High school in East First South street it will be necessary to bring condemnation proceedings to acquire the land needed.

Returns from a few of the school census enumerators were received by the clerk of the board of education on yesterday and it is expected that the remainder will be in by Wednesday or Thursday.

SUES SHERIFF SHARP.

Motorcyclist's Auto Seized on Judgment of City Court.

A complaint was filed in the district court yesterday by J. F. Whittier, who says that Sheriff Sharp, through one of his deputies, seized an automobile belonging to F. E. Whittier, the crack motorcycle rider, on which J. F. Whittier had a mortgage for $850. The automobile was taken to satisfy a judgment in the city court in favor of the Automobile Exchange company, and now F. E. Whittier refuses to pay the note.

CONFERENCE OF NEW STAKE.

C. W. Penrose and Joseph F. Smith, Jr., returned yesterday from St. Anthony, Idaho, where they attended the quarterly conference of the Yellowstone stake of the Mormon church. The convention, which was largely attended, was held in Fog's hall, owing to the fact that the stake tabernacle is not yet completed. The Yellowstone stake was until recently a part of the Fremont stake, with headquarters at Rexburg.

This, he says, was in violation of the agreement between the firemen and the railroad, which provides that the coal shall
